" This is our story. Together let's restart tourism! "

Bag Tour was born in 1996 in the exclusive Parioli district of Rome. Ennio Anzidei's idea is to act as a reference point for incoming and outgoing tourism. Later, we also specialized in business travel, meetings, incentives and conferences, collaborating with important local companies, for which we organized business trips in Italy and around the world. Over the years we have also participated as an exhibitor at the "TTG Incontri" fair in Rimini and developed commercial relationships with international buyers.

In 2011, on the initiative of Stefano Iannucci and Kasia Kinel, SOS Travel was born in Rome, a tour operator that soon became a point of reference for the organization of guided tours in Europe. The following year we opened an office in Krakow (Poland) and the development of the destination continued. On the occasion of the Poland-Ukraine football championships in 2012 and the World Youth Day in 2016, we provided travel solutions for numerous large groups of up to 500 people each, consolidating the experience and quality of the operator.

The Dolce Vita in the Roman Castles in the house that once belonged to Ugo Tognazzi. Visit of the house museum, walk in the vineyard and tasting of 3 wines combined with a tasting of typical products. Optional cooking class in the kitchen of the famous actor.

ITINERARY

Departure from Rome in the morning with your own car or train, meet with the guide at the La Tognazza residence, the home of the famous actor Ugo Tognazzi.

We are in Velletri, an ancient center of the Roman Castles, rich in a great artistic and architectural heritage, as well as the seat of long-lived enological and culinary traditions. Precisely for these reasons, Ugo Tognazzi, one of the most prominent actors of the last century, chose it as a home for himself and his family.

THE LA TOGNAZZA

The estate, which he renamed La Tognazza, has for years been the meeting place of his distinguished colleagues such as Marco Ferreri, Luciano Salce, Vittorio Gassman, Paolo Villaggio, Marcello Mastroianni, Federico Fellini and Alberto Sordi. A safe haven where to share a meal prepared entirely with zero kilometer products produced in his farm accompanied by excellent homemade wine.

THE VISIT

Tognazzi left us in 1990 but his philosophy of good food is well maintained by his heirs who have made the estate a cultural association that allows us to visit the Memorial House, also known as Casa Vecchia (the Old House), where it will be possible to walk through the spaces that accompanied the most intimate moments of the actor's daily life and inspired some of his screenplays such as The Big Feast or My Friends. We will attend the screening of a documentary on the actor, while our sommelier will present the products of the estate with a tasting of 3 wines accompanied by typical products. We will then continue to discover the rooms of the house, including the bedroom, the kitchen and the private spaces where the actor kept his fondest memories.

COOKING CLASS AND LUNCH

An optional experience that can be combined with the visit to the House Museum and wine tasting. It will allow us to relive the experience and the ferment that for years have been the protagonists of Tognazzi's kitchen. A professional chef will teach us how to make excellent pasta, working in the same environment where the author gave life to his creations. This will be followed by a "traditional Italian" lunch consisting of an aperitif, first course, second course, side dish and dessert. Price: 150€ per person (2 to 4 people).

We will visit the Vatican Picture Gallery where there is the painting of St. Jerome in penitence and a copy of Leda with the Swan kept in the Borghese Gallery. Updated and revisited, the lock project is still in use today. We will also visit the Acca-demia Gallery where various drawings, caricatures and studies for important works are kept.
